PLANTATION SERVICES, INC.

For immediate release:

We are pleased to announce that Zach Thwaite Jr. of Atlanta, Georgia has joined Plantation Services. Zach studied Forestry and Business Administration at Auburn University. His father and uncle have been in the land and timber business for forty years and Zach has had a lifetime of experience in the business. He is known for his unique ability to turn a property's potential into reality helping individuals buy and manage large acreage tracts. Habitat management for wildlife is a passion for Zach and one that complements his expertise in dealing with historic properties and luxury farms.

Zach will be working from his Atlanta base on properties in Georgia, Alabama, and South Carolina.

Plantation Services has offices in Albany, Georgia and Charleston, South Carolina. The company has sold and managed farms, plantations, and other special properties since 1959.
